SONG OF THE MONEY MAKER, on the right. The iceman thought he was playing a joke on some one, as he had often seen him about there. And heaped them in the sea; "Come on," said Hendricks. "He may hake for the Union street elevated sta-ion. Liberton or only clame."

have hollowed the mountains with

I call my sheep from deep unto deep;
They flock to that fed and rejoids. A

For my ships that sail under the world, And my fire steeds out of the west. Hiw stretch me a thousand seas 1 tau be and the gather me gain from the land and

And heap it at my knees. But the man with the Book comes close in my wake.

His feed with swiftness shod, And the naked man with his savage clan Is told of the white man's God. 889 q d (So say the mawkish crew);
No delicate strain and no fineness of brain
That goes with the sifted few. But a man like me must go before

That's paved for the march of mind. ino Tread: then the deep blowed size betrog His treasured word indites; Sits warm by his fire and writes. The great sky-filling dome

Through the wild abode I lay the road

Through me is reared on high; That wisdom may not die. Mayhap my brain is coarse, Mayhap my heart is dry.

Are not for such as I. But a man like me must go before the artist comes behind but he xile Through a wild abode I lay the road That's paved for the march of mind. -Sam Walter Foss, in N. Y. Sun.

From Clue to Climax.

[Copyright 1806, by J. B. Uppincott Co.] CHAPTER XVI.-CONTINUED.

Hendricks sprang into the half and eaught the girl's arm. Where's his room?" he asked, unde his breathy O "Second floor back," answered the Hendricks turned to the doctor () "Quick" he said "Follow me." lio Mrs. Champney's mind, however, had

She ran between Handricks and the foot of the stairs, and with outstretched us. He is a regular devil!" Zarms stood in his way . Z. Z. Bento "What has he done?" What are you going to do with him?" she said. "He · is my brother, and-" "Pardon me! I must do it!" and Hendricks caught, her arms pashed her back towards the hall door, and signal sold lings to Dr. Lampking who had deter mined to be as agile as his friend, spran as a greyhound, and he was half-way up on "your trans the may have seen us get by the hand. She was pale, and there eyes aim and displaying great courage.

were red with weeping. It is a last of the train. He may have seen us get by the hand. She was pale, and there eyes aim and displaying great courage.

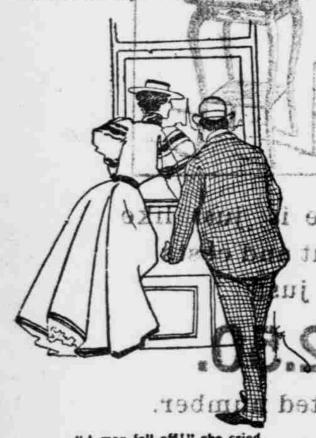

were red with weeping. the flight before the doctor had started. Dr. Lampkin caught up with him at the closed door of the back room on the second floor. He was trying to force it open with his right hand, while in the left he held his revolver. "Hang him, he's on to us!" panted the detective. "That kid made too much noise. Get out your gun, and come against the door with me. Quick! we must smash it. The lock is strong."

They struck the door simultaneously. It did not yield at first, and the house shook, and resounded with the hollow noise. There was a startled cry from below, a woman's voice, and then steps He did not seem injured, for he began to on the stairs.

"Quick! come again!" grunted th detective; and shoulder To Oshoulder they struck the door one more. The fastenings gave way, and they plunged into the room, only keeping their feet by falling against a bureau which had been rolled against the door, and which now, with its broken mirror, stood in their way.

The room was empty. An open window told a story. Hendricks swore an der his breath as he made his way to the nimble as a cat." Then the guard slid window. He pointed to the sloping roof the doors open and began to call out "That's the way he went. Come our we must not wait to run round the block. We are as nimble as he is. He went over that rear wall into the alley. door and drawing his friend by the I see where he dislodged some of the bricks."

Hendricks thrust his revolver into his coat-pocket crawled over the win-dow-sill, swung down to his full length, and then let go. Dr. Lampkin was in | he said, as he started into a brisk walk. the window when Hendricks struck the | "All we can do now is to go back where roof. The next instant they stood together in the yard, and a minute later We may pick up something there, had scaled the brick wall and were in | though I doubt it." the alley.

Vehicles and workmen were going desired, for quite a crowd of people had them. The driver of an ice wagon said disperse them.

Turning into Union street, the pursuers made all the speed possible to-

"I'll bet my life I saw him going up, The steps on this side. It was just for halfendricks ignored the question, and an instant, as he turned the corner of at once went up in the estimation of the stairway. I saw a white-headed both the policement and has partir Slender Tellow, and he was going too fast not to be trying to escape someithing. We may getthim after all, Hang ing glances, and then muswered: "No."

Hendricks broke into a run, but the long train slowed up overhead and came with the greatest difficulty that Dr. Lampkin kept up with him. Just as Hendricks plunged through the swinging door leading to the train steam was heard escaping from the engine. The guards on the platform of the cars were jerking the bell cord and closing, the gates.

The were jerking the bell cord and closing, the gates.

"You are going to follow up that cab, the way the way the man who had been and find out where the contract of the cars he down as the man who had been and find out where the contract of the cars he down as the man who had been and find out where the contract of the cars he down as the man who had been and find out where the cars had a second and the cars had a second a s tective, as he darted past the man who the man was taken. was receiving the tickets, and reached "There would be no use in that," by will remed a simply cases were Headricks replied (He was simply cases Won Praise and Honor from closed and the train was moving. The guards, as they swept by, stared in astioned them back.

But Hendricks did not heed their warning. Grasping the gate on the front end of the last car while the guard was closing the sliding door of the car ahead, he swung himself first to a foothold on the platform, and then, before the gnard could prevent it, leaded over

Dr. Lampkin, determining not to be left, swung on to the platform of the rear car, where there was no guard, and with some difficulty, slowly climbed over the iron railing.

Hendricks smiled grimly when he saw that the doctor was safe, and, passing the guard, who was speechless with amagement, ran through the crowded car to Dr. Lampkin on the rear plat-

"Come with me," he whispered, panthim before we heach the next station. acted with the rapidity of lightning. He'll be desperate, and we must cover a needle in a haystack. The truth is, him with our guns. He must not escape I have get to find some other line to

> Just then the guard come up, "See here, what does this mean?" he asked, sternly. "Don't you know-"

"Detectives." whispered Hendricks. "Murderer on this train. Let us alone at soften warmed a blod on HIII. If you interfere' -- us the guard seemed

The train was now going at full speed. They had passed into the fourth car pose yet did not catch my brother, and from the end, searching on each side now want to search the house."

for the fugitive, when they heard a "We did not catch him, that is true,

"A man fell off!" she cried, her face she was on. The windows were so If I had reflected would not have crowded that Hendricks could not get | pushed you aside as I did; but, as it to them. He ran out on the platform of | was it seemed our out chance of sen And a Flower Girl Reminded the Litthe car and looked back. A tall, grayhaired man without a hat stood on the del track, leaning against the iron railing. walk easily along the narrow plank. Presently, just as the train was turning a curve, he lowered himself between the cross-ties and vanished.

Hendricks turned to Lampkit "Beat!" be said, simply. "He is the follow him. But I can't jump off a fly-but if If I suppose you are employed ing train, even for him." culy of erinfinal cases. Has ne-" "You are sensible. You would be a fool to try it," said the doctor. "It's all "Get out at the first station and go back to where he descended." entire train knew that Hendricks was in "What hashe done?" she gasped. "You a detective. The one on the front of may as well let if ont. I want to know the fourth car volunteered some infor- What has he done?"

and made a break for the boor. I "His name was Strong-Richard No not know her and she turned and thought something was wrong with the Strong."

11301 Started on again. But the child man to the thought something was wrong with the Strong." fellow, so I tried to hold him back when he started over the gate, but he slipped through my hands like an eel. Before I knew what he was about he was swingin' down at the side of the car as white as a corpse, but smilin' all the time. anks were wider between the two railroads and let go. It knocked him bell down, but he got up again." "Do you think it hurt him at all?"

asked Hendricks. "Not a bit in the world, sing hels as

"Let's be the first out," said the defective, pressing past some men to the Reaching the street below, Hendricks . "Lam sorry to say it looks very much political arguments that I hear turned back towards the direction as it he did it." Hendricks replied, "In sides," said the traveler. whence they had come.

"I suppose it is about four blocks." he let himself down from the railroad, afraid she was going to faint, she had! to enter a political discussion with the

It was easy enough to find the spot

them, in astonishment. "Yes. Where did he go?"

lately That's why he has been so restlately That's why he has been so restsaid he fell off the train and hurt himso anxious to read the newspapers. Foor self, a little and wanted to go home." the driver and tan. !-"No; did you, John W 10 xod

"I couldn't hear, the crowd kept up, such a racket. What's the chap done?" "Do you know the cabman ?!!! 100

The poliperion exchanged questionht. here comes, the train we must a lastreet urchin spoke up, "He some of catch it." Jimmy McGuire's migs, but I don't know Wright Med. Co. tChining abworder want to get back to business, and your best beambilling ringell me som and will soon be in New York ost like work on MIf the feilow should take a botion to leave the city, he might never be caught, and we should not be able to ed from the heights, marched against help that young man and his girl out of his foes and in a pitched battle on the their trouble. I'll see you before long."

to hesitate "TM have you slapped into de Hentleicks walked back to 234 Union jail. Get out of the way. Come on, doc street and rang the beily Mrs. Champe some charger he bounded into the tor. He is likely to be about the middle "ney came to the door holding her son

she said coldly I sup-

on the left.

"A man fell off!" she cried, her face hot come to do anything that would be pressed against the glass. At once the unpleasant to you. I came chieffy to people in the car rushed over to the side apologization my roughness just now. curing him, and we already had been you must be She paused. "Minard Hendricks the detective inratious! I she cried, putting her arm ground her son and drawing him to her. "I knew it was you, because I have heard how considerate you always are with women. Isit, isit, then, so most reckless fellow I ever chased. I se serious? At first I boped it was and here the macks of much resage. have got a mother to support of I would only some triffing act of unisconducted by the little old woman was one of that nly of tradital cases. Hat he Hendricks sat down W am arraid to a serious right for him; his neck is at stake. Mrs. Champney; but it is only a charge, oo ze you suow; et course he has not yet been

The woman's face fell and the arm By this time the guards through the ground the boy was trembling visibly.

"There was a certain man whom your "He saw you come in at the end, sir, | brother hated," replied the detective.

saw her eyes waver.

had good reason for doing so. Strong the Hitle old woman suffeed and took governd it with gold paint and blue rib robbed him of every went of his savings the flower, which scemed still moist bons, and made a lovely ornament for when they were partners in mining en with the dew of heaven, and kissed it the center table. Town Topics. Then he came to a place where the terprises out west (years) ago. That with her withered, trembling lips, which was my brother's one weak point; her tried to speak, the words of thanks and the next station. The train was slow- brother could not hime him! me, without my having to face such a land and Hada't Studied for It. Tail fact, I have rather strong evidence "No," replied the native: 'I never against him."

Drawing her child to a sofa with her. the woman sat down. Hendricks was And You don't feel strong enough turned so white, but when he started baverage range about hore?" suggested ing to see the sun rise? him back.

"Was you chasin' 'tm?" asked one of the the other others and will have to be exement. I will have to be exempted it out of the property of the others and will have to be exempted. It is a standard of the other others and will have to be exempted. It is a standard of the other others and will have to be exempted it.

Tom! He used to be a good brother to Did you hear the direction he gave I'm sowhered was signiff Ohthe Henartosol can't beabithinis awful nawful anaistoythik of what may leome of it. Is

The other policeman shock his head, there do bepo? I add timbs villed. In the other policeman shock his head, there do bepo? I add timbs villed. In the couldn't hear, the crowd kept up, to have is not brought to justice, an uch a racket. What's the chap done? innocent man will most likely suffer in Hendricks ignored the question, and his place, said Hendricks I am with the once went up in the estimation of the world before him, a complicant content to be the policement as has a said before him, a complicant content to be the policement as has a said before him, a complicant content to be the policement as has a said before him, a complicant content to be the policement as has a said before him, a complicant content to be the policement as has a said before him, a complicant content to be the policement as has a said before him, a complicant content to be the policement as here were the content to be the policement as here were the content to be the policement as here were the content to be the policement as here were the content to be the content to be the policement as here were the content to be the policement as here were the content to be the policement as here were the content to be the policement as the policement are the policement as the policement and the policement as the policement as the policement and the policement as the policement as the policement as the policement and the policement as the pol have to suffer. Your bundherois without doubt guilty and I really see little

"You came back to search his room, Is mass, eswered he woman. "You know where it is. I shall offer no objec-"Jimmy turns 'em off landthisestness resear Awant to flowship in right, if he to a stop just as they reached the foot of the steps. A wild look of mingled licemen. Hendricks thanked them and take the consequences in turned away, a look of disappointment the face of the detective as he dashed at on his face. They had gone to block the detective. This is your liouse; the stairs. Up he ran, like a deer, take the detective in the detective. This is your liouse; they had just left before he spoke. The find that syour roof, eview the greatest difficulty that Dr. Then he said: s'il shall leave you, doctor. I know yad! without hoal andy libbig you might

Now it so happened that Genghis, in order to subdue the deserters from his father's tribes had dethroned several princes or khans. These petty chiefs had been in the habit of paying tribute to the great sovereign of the Kin emdon pire in North China. This high and last mighty potentate now demanded money aid from Gaughis Khan, thereby rousing the fre of our Mongolian warrior, who announced that rather than pay one cent for tribute he would fight the whole Chinese kingdom. Preparations for war were at once begun, and Casan was delighted when he received orders o join the army. At last his dream was realized. He was going to fight real battles, and he was in command of a hody of troops. He hade adieu to his family, and with a proud heart set out to meet his sovereignand you! As a first step Genghis Khan invaded western Hea, captured several strongholds and retired in the summer to a place called Lung Ting, in order to escape the great heat of the plains or steppes, While there news reached him that several other khans were preparing for war. He thereupon descend-River Irtish he overthrew them completely. Casan attracted a great deal of notice on this occasion. He was here, there and everywhere. On his mettle, fight, hurling, his lance with unerring

After the fray he was summoned to appear before the conqueror, who complimented the dwarf, saying: "Thy valor and thy courage have completely justified thy promises. From this day: forth thou shalt be a khan; thou shalt have command of a large body of troops and shalt hereafter be my companion in arms,"-Mary Shearz Roberts, in St. Nicholas. of Alana I and there ber

SOMEBODY'S GRANDMA.

tle Old Woman of the Fact. She was old and wrinkled. Her form was bent with the burdens of many years and her hair had whitened the sands of life ran through the hourglass of time. Her clothes were old and shabby, and the shawl which protected the gray head from storms and sunshine had doubtless served the old woman;

sists upon the charitable people of St. Louis. Of her arm was the regulation the food of charity, and as she hurried along among the crowd of toilers en see, it's only intended to hold the deliloging the bright moon hour on the cacies of the season.—Town Tonics of the season.—Town Ton reet, the little old woman hugged the would be taken from her

W Suddenly the sweet toice of a child stopped her. It was the voice of a little flower girl, in a large sunbonnets It wasevident that the little old woman did The woman stared, then Hendricks her with a bright red rose in her out wher eyes waver.

"Strong was murdered in his dec. the lips as they murmured the words three overlsoago," said Hendricks, in the lips as they murmured the words pressively.

"Oh, my God! you don't mean it?" My brother could not have killed him! which she held tenderly to her hand, be ing all she say.

Tom could not have done such a thing. She was somebooks grandma.—St.

Louis Republic. the lips as they murmured the word could be so tiresome."-Washington

"You never seem to enter into these political arguments that I frear on al go against any game that I haven't mast to rise to her assistance she motioned wie travelerd food sidt sieles bels maiffWelk Lawouldn't exactly say that," Now I understated," she said. "He returned the native, duhiously. to and fro, but the pursuers saw no one gathered under the elevated track, and Went away about three weeks ago and gives Tin strong enough but I'm lackwho appeared to be trying to escape two policemen seemed to be trying to would heartell me where he had been minging science. I hever took them. The driver of an ice wagon said disperse them.

The driver of an ice wagon said disperse them.

Where did the fellow go that got about his absence. Ered!" she cuick as not meaten as an in the position to possess and it is a seed to be she held the boy a little way from her. Not just in the position to possess and it is a seed to be she held the boy a little way from her. Not just in the position to possess and it is a seed to be she held the boy a little way from her. Not just in the position to possess and it is a seed to be she held the boy a little way from her. Not just in the position to possess and it is a seed to be she held the boy a little way from her. Not just in the position to possess and it.

How it Happened. "I wish Beaid the young man, "that Mrs. Slimdiet (boarding house he by my first name." " " " "I'd rather not," replied his fair com panion; "your last name suits me." A few minutes later they were dis cussing the merits of the different firm that supply furniture upon the install ment plan.-Chicago News

A Much-Worn Instrument.
"Let's bury now the hatchet," the politician cried, And the editors agreed with what "We've no longer any use for it; it's be tered, head and side, (1891) 18 (1991) With nailing campaign lies upon t

-Cincinnati Commercial A COMFORTING SUGGESTION. Ella-What mak

Gigantie Footballer (to little Tibbins who has been persuaded into taking the place of an absentee) - We must see if we can't make the next half a little more exciting, ole chap! - London Fun.

. It . WNo Change Willy yo She Would you love me just same if I were poor as you do when I'm He Just the same; and there was a covert meaning in the tone that her confiding nature did not grasp .- Detroit Free Pressimments a stuties

Wanted Her Free of Charge. "I came to ask for your daughter in the W Is From Day to Days" marriage, sir," said the young man. "Have you any money of your own?" asked the careful parenters and mi eros: "Oh, you misunderstand me, sir! I do not want to buy her!"-Yonkers Statesman. that their by beriesh you would be less informal and call me er)—What have you in this por, bridget?

by my first name." " Bridget who is frying to clean the old lamp burners by boiling them)-Plaze, mum, thim's th' ould lamp tops. waz no use at all at all. Mrs. Slimdiet Well, don't forget to put in plenty of weak oring.—N. Y. Week-

Always a Remnant. "There is time thing I can't understand." "If a man dies bis widow is called his "Yes"
"And if the desperself she is called the remains." Chicago News.

ways quite contrary, Until the place was visited by a man from Tipperary: But from the first she treated him in ner most sublime,

-L. A. W. Bulletin. Slimchap get that beautiful yellow chrysanthemum he is smelling? What an enormous one it is, too. Miss Prudity-That is not a chrysanthemum; it is only cold slaw on the end of Mr. Slimchap's fork, Mr. Nearsight. Cincinnati Commercial.

A Sordid Soul. Jinks Of all mean, grasping men, I think Minks is the worst, I don't believe he ever gets his thoughts off of dollars and contaction in done ean Blinks-What has be been doing? Jinks-He's been asking me for a paltry ten dollars I borrowed of bin some years ago. N. Y. Weekly other wall ab Torture bus sinem She (reading) - I see by the paper that Mr. Gladstone says that practice is needed for the completion of an educa-

He—Yes; Lthink about a week more practice by the girl in the next flat will complete my education for an insane asylum.-Up-to-Date.

With cheer and with arder each new day And hope never totally lapses; Though yesterday passes with sad "Might-have-beens,"

To-morrow is full of "Parhapses.

-Washington Star. Demograt still try to secure some advertising The Carlisle Mosesy says Nicholas tion during the most session of the may be procured from any mer Making Himself Liked. The New Boarder What makes this table wobble so? It doesn't seem to be less Jack when you had such a host of Poolish to Own Up to It. He shook his head thoughtfully: "After a little experience with some of these self-made men," he said, "I think they are foolish to accept the responsibility of hisnufacturel "-Chicago. other Lexington man.

THE YOUNGER CLEVELAND ON HIS CHAINLESS SAFETY, 192 MODEL.

Jos BrilliantffSugdess. cake a success Xent as 2000g "Yes, perhaps he did hate him he so the fittle old woman turned and took governd it with gold paint and blue rib ni stretched hand,

Her Reasoning but was really a sort of monomaniac on the sion she felt, but could not utter. She "Willie Wishington is very original in subject. But what has that to de sleed up, and the flower tell then the must be," replied Miss Cayenna. "Strong was murdered in his bed smiled again, and pressed the flower tell." I don't know of anybody else who "Willie Wishington is very original in bis remarks farming Yarl ods un "He must be," replied Miss Cayenne.

> MITTIL Not at AHII Wongle ful. That tenor of ours has a marvelous voice. He can hold one of his notes for half a minute." "O"Shucks! Ever held one of his notes for two years,"-Cleveland Plain Dealer Here and there are good, soft benches As a rule'tt always happens They are full of other men. Chicago Record.

Z MOSMOHT Only (Twice, 14) Yeast-Were you ever up in the morn-chew N. Y. Journal Crimsonbeak-Yes; but I was only up twice as late as that .- Yonkers States-

To Cure A Cold In Our Easily Accounted For. Diggs-Glumly spends nearly all hi Simbolis solitary meditations of Biggs That may abound i fend then mel out of tittle torday one A poor opinion he has of mankind - Chi a Mr. Busy-Math pleasure of the hold age Record

Penelope-Why did you accept penni-

Making Himself Heard. Mrs. Myles-Is anyone paying attention to the Huggins girl now 21 Mrs. Styles-Well, I should rather say so! She's got a new piano, and everyone in the block is paying attention to her.-Yonkers Statesman. 000.0

"Too Good to Be True." She's beautiful—that's good to know. She's good—that's beautiful to see; She is so good, while I'm not so, she's "too good to be trug" to me.

Old Lady-My little boy do you smoke Kid No, mum, but I can give you a Steam drills are not used in New Jersey. But why should that give you a shock? They capture a good-stred mosquito--And let it eril into the rock. -N. Y. World.

all bluow no black I Prike 1501 . 1MAUB.

dangenthe day zakay. Weekly.